

Plough implement

The qualified level of plough implement are manufactured and assembled by advanced engineering process, including a thick steel welding by an accurate and modern welding robot, to ensure that all of our plough implement are strong and durable products which meet the international quality standard.

There are wide range of plough implement, consisting of pioneer, plough, and special disc implement which can cut, shuffle, flip and cover soils in one loop of process by using functioned working principle of disc.